

Australian Honey Fungus

Armillaria luteobubalina

Australian Honey Fungus grows in clusters around the base of trees. It has a yellow-brown cap with scales that feel like sandpaper. It has white gills with rusty-red or yellow spots at the edges.

Fungimap Inc.

www.fungimap.org.au

Putting Australian fungi on the map