

Myrtle Beech Orange

Cyttaria gunnii

The Myrtle Beech Orange fungus grows on the branches of the Myrtle Beech tree. It is yellow-orange with deep orange cavities, like an apricot-coloured honeycomb.

Fungimap Inc.

www.fungimap.org.au

Putting Australian fungi on the map